Purpose

The friends group serves as a volunteer support organization for the University’s George A. Spiva Library, encouraging community interest in the library and promoting a fuller understanding of its purpose, programs, and potential.

Through its generosity, the organization fosters gifts, donations, endowments, and memorials to the library, enabling the George A. Spiva Library to acquire distinctive and valuable materials for faculty, staff, students, scholars and community members.

Activities

- Readings & Lecture Series by notable authors
- Annual Friends’ Reception
- Faculty Seminars
- Book Sales and other Fund-Raising Events
- Specialized Library Tours

As a Friends member, you will receive:

- Support they provide while playing a vital role in sustaining and improving services and materials of the George A. Spiva Library.

Remember a Loved One

pay lasting recognition. The library will purchase a chosen item in honor of a person you designate. A bookplate naming the honoree and donor will be secured to the item bought with your contribution. The result is a loving testament that will endure for years.
